Referrals Mean Business

Since 1988, members have been meeting through monthly evening networking functions called "Martys," Team Network's own unique blend of a meeting and a party.

Members regularly come together to have fun, build meaningful relationships and share their varied experiences to improve their businesses and become more successful.

As a "Team" network, we share a common business philosophy: To offer uncompromising quality, dependability, and personal service to our clients and customers.

"We use and recommend each other with confidence and you can too!"

Instinct Interiors Ink

Sue Morris of Instinct Interiors Ink has talent, personality, commitment to excellence, and she's got that Team Network bug of enthusiasm... and it sure is contagious!

Sue held her Dulles Team Network Marty this past month in her decorated showroom... her own home. I mean this girl went all out with a written out "Tour Guide Sheet," a PowerPoint presentation complete with her own designed Marty logo, she invited several potential member guests, and to top it all off, we all drank Margarita Slurpee's from a margarita
